

MURAL BY: DAVID MCSHANE

CAPTURE EACH MOMENT.

You've snapped countless pictures all season. You have a catalog of memorable moments: wins, losses, home runs and nail biters. So what happens to these memories?

Last year, photobook and calendar company PicStories, was granted an official license of Babe Ruth League. The photobook company takes memorable moments from the season and transforms them into personalized photobooks and calendars.

PicStories offers leagues and teams a unique program unparalleled in the industry. The user-friendly ordering site is completely customized for Babe Ruth Baseball, Cal Ripken Baseball, and Babe Ruth Softball.

Most recently, on Tuesday April 2nd, PicStories was pleased to be provide a take-away poster to all attendees of the official ribbon cutting of the new City of Champions Mural in Philadelphia, PA. The mural reflects the growth of athletes who all started their careers in youth leagues across the country.

PicStories is eagerly awaiting the opportunity to provide the Babe Ruth Baseball, Cal Ripken Baseball, and Babe Ruth Softball with their own memorabilia filled with game and season highlights. The photobooks, calendars and other products will capture the season unlike any options you've had in the past, promising a high quality and hassle-free experience.

Make your memories come alive today: <http://baberuth.picstories.com/baberuth/cart2/>

