

JASON JEWELL
SEPTEMBER 15, 1951 — APRIL 8, 2012

Jason Jewell of Bloomington, Indiana, passed away at the age of 60 after a brief, but brave battle with cancer.

Jason's passion for the children and athletes of Southern Indiana was unwavering. He devoted over 25 years to this passion, serving as President of the Bloomington Babe Ruth League, as well as a District Commissioner and State Commissioner for the Southern Indiana Babe Ruth League program.

In honor of Jason's tremendous contribution to the sport and the kids, he was inducted into the Southern Indiana Baseball Hall of Fame in 2007.

Jason served in the Army as a Military Police. Professionally, he was the owner of Jason Jewell Insurance and Realty.

Most of all, Jason enjoyed bringing humor to any situation with a quick wit and a ready joke. He was a devoted father and grandfather who truly loved his family.
