

RONALD F. SCHULER
JANUARY 8, 1937—JULY 16, 2015

Ronald F. Schuler, 78, of Kenosha, Wisconsin, died on Thursday, July 16, 2015.

Ron honorably served his country in the U.S. Army.

He began his entrepreneurial career with Ron's Rubbish Removal, which then became Tri-County Disposal. At the time of his death, Ron and his family owned and operated Truesdell Mini-Mart and Countryside Market in Bristol, Wisconsin.

Ron's life was God, baseball, his sons and grandkids, and "the wife" - in that order (according to family and friends).

Ron served as Wisconsin Babe Ruth Baseball State Commissioner for over 25 years. In the Babe Ruth League, he coached the Kiwanis All Stars and the Kenosha Indians. He managed many teams with the Kenosha Babe Ruth League. His businesses also sponsored many different sports teams in the Kenosha community throughout the years. Ron also coached St. Joseph High School Lancer Varsity Baseball in 1994-1995.

Ron is survived by his wife of 46 years, Carol Schuler, his two sons, Steve and Ron, his five precious grandchildren, Pete, Jake, Ellie, Tori and Luke, and his brother Robert Schuler.

