

DENNIS P. EWING, SR.
NOVEMBER 6, 1946—AUGUST 30, 2015

Dennis P. Ewing, Sr., 68, of Bedford, Texas, formerly of Jamestown, New York, passed away on August 30, 2015.

Before his retirement, he had worked for many years at Dawson Metal Company, Inc.

Dennis was a longtime volunteer for Babe Ruth Baseball, both on the local and state level for 42 years. He started out coaching in the Jamestown Babe Ruth League in 1965 and became a manager in 1966. He served as Secretary for the Jamestown Babe Ruth League for several years before becoming League President in 1978.

Always wanting to do more for the kids and Babe Ruth Baseball, he became involved at the state level, serving as an assistant, a District Commissioner, Assistant State Commissioner and in 1985 assumed the position of Upstate New York State Commissioner.

In 1980, Dennis served as the first Vice President for the very first Babe Ruth 13-Year-Old World Series held in Jamestown, and served the same in 1981 and was active during the 1984 World Series. Dennis was active in many ways with Babe Ruth Baseball throughout his life and made many friends along the way. To put it mildly, he loved baseball.

Dennis was also very active in the Jamestown community where he received several awards including the first Joseph Mason Award, the Ray Angle Award and the Shrinner's Service to Youth Award.

Surviving are his wife of 47 years, Brenda, two sons, Dennis Pl (Julie) Ewing, Jr., Scott A. (Susan) Ewing, four grandchildren, two step-grandsons, and a great grandson.

