

RONALD W. HERMANN, SR.
DECEMBER 23, 1934 TO JANUARY 9, 2016

Ronald W. Hermann, 81, of Sacramento, California, passed away on January 9, 2016.

Ron's talents were many and varied. He was a boxer, clown, mechanic, construction worker, trucker driver, Sacramento reserve Police Officer, and tree trimmer. However, his true vocation came as a Sacramento Firefighter from which he retired.

Ever active, after retirement he continued to operate his "Code 3 Catering" service.

Babe Ruth Baseball was one of Ron's passions. He served as a coach, manager, League President, and was instrumental in the construction of baseball fields. He truly enjoyed his position as Northern California State Commissioner for many years, overseeing tournaments in many years.

Even though his activities were numerous, family came first. Attendance at his children's functions and events were paramount. All major holidays were celebrated at "dad's house". Ron his survived by his wife, Bobbie, children Ron II, Mark, Matt and Kathy, 7 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild.

